

Creating Workforce Solutions

The Arizona Health Care Association is pleased to present this Strive for 5 Forum on a profession-wide focal point, Creating Workforce Solutions. As workforce concerns grow in importance, this forum is designed to discuss best practices in workplace culture, retention, recruitment, orientation, and engagement. AHCA has gathered state and national experts to present on the latest trends in workforce solutions. This interactive forum will also allow for peer interaction for individuals to deliberate and share their successful strategies. Don't miss this important forum!
